

Booklet reviews from across the nation

"One of the best resources available on the topic. Thank you!" --Victim Advocate, Ohio

"I wish this resource was available when I sought help after being raped. The Rape Crisis Center staff were great, but having something like this in writing really would have helped me a lot. I think survivors will benefit greatly from the information in this booklet." --A Rape Survivor

"Three rape survivors who are Latina immigrant women (and now work at the program) read the Spanish booklet and loved it. They wished they had something like that when they needed it."
--MUNA Program, Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence

"The sexual assault booklet that you created for USAFA is incredible! Thank you. This will be very powerful and helpful information for our victims, leaders and others. What is most exciting for me is that this resource will be right at people's fingertips and they will be able to access it anytime." --Bonita Spears (formerly, US Air Force Academy SAPR)

"It has been difficult for us to find materials for our clients in these formats. Thank you for these wonderful materials." --Committee Against Domestic Violence, Nebraska

"I am impressed by your booklet. Thank you for creating the resource and translating it for underserved communities." --Rape Relief and Women's Shelter Services, Washington

"I have just read your handbook for Professionals and Volunteers. It is extremely well researched, well written and organized. It will be a wonderful research tool for me and I plan to order copies for my volunteers-in-training." --Crisis Intervention Coordinator, The STTAR Center, Maryland

"I just received a copy of " Enfrentandose a la Violacion Y El Abuso Sexual" and it looks fantastic. This will definitely change the lives of the people it touches." --Professor, Latin American Studies

"I am a clinical social worker in private practice. I see many clients from the Texas Commission for the Blind. Many of these blind and visually impaired individuals have been victims of sexual assault. I very much appreciate your service in this area." --Social Worker, Austin, Texas

"We have found your booklet to be an excellent resource for the specific issues that college students face." --UC Irvine's department of Campus Assault Resources and Education

"These publications have been a tremendous resource for me----both professionally and personally, to better understand the policies and current issues of sexual assault in the military."
--Smita Satiani, Sexual Assault Victim Advocate, CA. (formerly with RAINN)

"Thank you for your excellent publications. We were very impressed with the content and plan to use them as much as possible." --North County Rape Crisis and Child Protection Center, CA.
